LIVELY POLITICS.

JUST BEFORE THE SEVERAL STATE ELECTIONS.

Another Estimate of the Probable Result in Pennsy nia-The Coming Congressmen-Governor Hoyt's Letter-Negroes Rejoicing in Florida-Election Riots Feared.

Special to the Constitution. PHILADELPHIA, November 4.-The conditions are all favorable for the capture of Pennsylvania by the democracy. If Pattison, the democratic candidate for governor and the whole democratic state ticket are not elected by a plurality of 15,000 and more, the shrewdest and best informed politicians in this city and Harrisburg are sadly at fault in their diagnosis of the situation. The republicans are divided throughout the state, with a minority veriously estimated at from 40,000 to 100,000 organized and heartily supporting a full state ticket and the majority under able management but with no confidence whatever in the strength of their candidates.

The democrats, on the other hand, are thoroughly untied and hopeful so far we can judge by surface indications. The doubtful element in the problem is the strength and disposition of the labor vote. There seems to be no doubt that the leaderes and manipulators of the so-called exemplest labor next were running their or the leaderes and manipulators of the so-called greenback-labor party are running their organization as a Cameron-Beaver side-show, and that the Cameron-Beaver managers are depending upon the votes which can thus be diverted from the democratic party (specifically the Irish Catholic votes) to supply the loss occasioned by the independent republican defection. Whether the goods thus contracted for can be delivered, and whether if delivered there will be enough of them to effect the desired result is the question which gives pause to the political prospects. The incidents of the last week of the campaign have been a return of many republicans to the regular camp and the determination of many independents, as a confequence, to vote directly for Pattison, the democratic candidate for governor, instead of for Stewart, the independent candidate. Both of these things are particularly true of Philadelphia. things are particularly true of Philadelphia, where Beaver, the regular republican nominee, has been making a ward to ward visita-tion and waving his crutch by way of invita-tion of another last rally against the confed-erate brigadiers. Without going into further details I may say that I look for the election of the entire democratic state ticket next Tuesday by a considerable plurality, the choice of an anti-Cameron legislature and a gain of four or five democratic congressmen. Following is a fair statement of the reasona-ble certainties and probabilities as to con-gressmen, other than the congressman-at-

in Chicago-Florida Negroes.

New York, November 6.—A committee of citizens to-day called on the police commissioners and stated that they feared riots at the election polls in the lower districts to-morrow. Mayor Grace also sent a letter to this effect and asked that the police be properly distributed for the protection of voters. Superintendent Walling has made all necessary preparations to prevent riots.

states where they will act as deputy marshals on the day of election. It is said that the treasury alone will send out 250 men."

Most of these clerks will go to southern states. The selection of deputy marshals from officers and clerks of departments is a new device. It is a bold thing to do, and it illustrates forcibly the desperate efforts put forth by the desperate efforts put forth by the desperate efforts put forth by the administration to save the forth by the administration to save the republican party from disaster. In many subdivisions of the departments work has well nigh ceased. A walk through the corridors of the public buildings to day disclosed the fact that not a few of the rooms are left entirely without occupants. Such a general hegira of federal officials was never before seen; not even in the halcyon days of the

SOME TREMENDOUS LIES.

Governor Hoyt, of Pennsylvania, Explains that he Never had Any Relations with Cameron. HARRISBURG, November 6.—Governor Hoyt has made the following statement in reference to the charges against him, made at a republ Can meeting here last evening, that he had used the state's funds in connection with others for private speculative purposes, and that, to avoid disgrace, he had applied to which the latter did: I never was a me of any pool engaged in stock speci desire to state emphatically and wi qualification that I have never request person or by agent from Mr. Cameror financial assistance either for self or anybody else; that has never advanced a dollar to me for that has never advanced a dollar to my behalf, or on my account dransaction, and that I have had relation or connection in business with had relation or connection in business with any party or combination or pool to whom he may have advanced money directly or indirectly. So far, in life, I have not been compelled to draw on either the intellectual, moral, political or financial resources of that gentleman. This attack is doubtless part of their discipline of extermination to which I am to be subjected in common with a large number of other citizens of the commonwealth. We accept the situation.

PHILADELPHIA, November 5.—The five assessers and United states supervisors arrested for making fraudulent and fictitious registration of voters, together with a supervisor ar-tion of voters, together with a supervisor ar-rested, were arraigned before United States commissioner Gibbons. In the case against James Wilson and Charles Marsh, United States supervisors, and John Myers, lodging-States supervisors, and John Myers, lodging-house keeper, Myers acknowledged that there-were 21 persons registered from his place of whom he had no knowledge. Testimony to this effect was offered by deputy United States marshal Cake, who stated that half a dozen fictitious names had been placed on the back of the accessors! list The accuracy were held of the assessors' list. The accused were held in $1,500 bail each. In the case against Samuel Welsenthral and John Mooney. United States supervisors, and John Harley, assessor, charged with fraudulent registration in the fourth ward, it was shown that efforts to find the recome registrated at varieup houses in the persons registered at various houses in Alaska street failed, and letters sent to them were returned to the post-office. The accused were held for a futher hearing on November

3th. Washington, November 6.—An idea of what Mahone is spending in Virginia districts may be formed from information that Repre-sentative Dezendorf, of the Norfolk district, has brought here to the effect that Mahone has already circulated $7,000 in that district and has laid aside $4,000 more for final and effective pressure. Mahone means to carry effective pressure. Mahone means to carr six districts if the free use of money and patronage can bring about that result, and i the rate of expenditure in the Norfolk district prevails elsewhere, Mahone's insatiate greed for assessment contributions will not be wondered at, for what he would put into the districts would certainly not suffice also to keep the general expenses of managing the canvass. It is probably no overstatement that Mahone has filched by assessment this fall close to $100,000, and even that fails to meet his demands, judging from the conscienceless clamor for fresh funds that he ha been keeping up lately.

OUTRAGE IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

Fifteen Negroes Shoot and Kill a Sheriff and Wound Several Other Whites.

Upon seeing Gantt, Reid again insisted that he should give up his neid again insisted that he should give up his pistol. There were six whites on the spot, Reid, Nowell, Gerald, Samuel Dewitt, Major Carsey and H. A. Peeples; upwards of 15 negroes fred upon Reid, who was almost killed instantly. The negroes then turned on the other whites and severely beat and cut Nowell, Garald, and Dewitt. Peeples impred upon other white and severely beat and cut Nowell, Gerald and Dewitt. Peeples jumped upon his horse, saying "I will go to Varnville and summon help." When he reached the edge of town he was way-laid by two negroes who stopped his horse and exclaimed: "You are a damned rascal, going for help to Varnville." Thereupon they dragged him from his horse and stabbed him with a knife on the left thigh and side. They were brutally beating him when, seeing that he would probably be killed, he resorted to the use of calling on an killed, he resorted to the use of calling on a absent friend to come to his assistance with a pisicl. This had desired effect and after cut pistol. This had desired effect and after cut-ting the bridie reins the negroes left him. The negroes had not the slightest provocation as Reid was discharging his duty.

The Army.

Washington. November 6.—Adjutantgeneral Drum has submitted to the general of the army his annual report for the last fiscal year. There were, during the year 6.181 discharges, 263 deaths, and 3,741 deserters; making the total loss to the army 10,145. There were 5.921 new recruits assigned and 1420. were 5,921 new recruits assigned, and 1,420 re-enlistments, total number of enlistments was 7,734; of whom 4,497 were native born, and 2,827 of foreign birth, General Drum says a comparison with the figures submitted last year shows that while the number of men discharged from service by sentence of court martial is less than during the year 1881, the number of re-enlist nents has fallen off 544 and the number of desertions is 380 in excess. He then devotes considerable space to the ques tion of desertion and suggests means of abat ing the evil. He also calls attention to the demoralizing effect produced upon the army by restoration to it through congressional in erference of officers who have been dismisse om service by court-martial. In conclusion a urges the importance of education in the army, and recommends that a board of nine officers of rank and intelligence be convened to consider the whole subject.

FIGHTING CLOSURE.

HE PREVIOUS QUESTION IN THE ENGLISH PARLIAMENT.

London, November 6.-In the house tonight the debate on clesure question was resumed. Lord John Manners, conservative, offered an amendment providing that any division on the closure shall be taken by secret ballot. The amendment was rejected by a vote of 139 to 55. On the speaker putting the first resolution of the closure rule Sir Stifford Northcote moved its rejection. He said he feared interference with free speech This first step was in the wrong direction. The remedy was worse than the disease. He predicted that obstruction would be encouraged and stimulated.

A strange destiny, he said, seemed to dog the footsteps of government whose doctrine, when assuming of fice, appeared to be that force was remedy, yet in Ireland and in Egypt and in procedure, in house of commons they seemed to have no other remedy but force. An assembly that made itself the tool of faction and trumpled upon the minority indoors would, before long, find itself of a majority out of doors. long, find itself of a majority out of doors. [Cheers.] Sir William Harcourt, liberal, denied that the resolution was a party measure except in the sense that the government had introduced it upon their own responsibility from a conviction that it was the only pl n which would allow the house the control of its proceedings. Liberals he said were as its proceedings. Liberals, he said, were as anxious for freedom of discussion as their opponents. There was hardly any one of great liberal reforms which had not seriously alarmed tories, but happily their fears were never realized. He asked the house to pass he resolution.

London, November 6.—Lord Randolph Churchill publishes a long letter in which he attempts to provethat the government wilt only succeed in defeating Sir Sanford Northcote's amendment for the rejecting of the cloture resolution in the house of commons by a majority of from 15 to 30. He bases his conclusions on the fact that the Irish party is now guided by a profound politician who has conclusively shown his preference for parliamentary action, rather than revolutionary methods, to which the cloture would be He considers that if the cloture suc ceeds by such a narrow majority it is duty of Sir Stafford N duty North-duty of Sir Stafford North-cote to announce that he re-fused to allow the question of proceedure to go forward without appeal to the constituenies and that to force such an appeal he cles and that to force such an appeal he should advise his supporters to make a determined use of rights of minorities. Such a course would not be obstructing business, as the session was only summoned to consider rules of precedure. A general election would probably be decisive against the cloture. The number of Parnellites would be double rephase almost trobled and it is highly double, perhaps almost trebled, and it is highly improbable that the conservatives would be weakened. If the cloture is not thus prevented the liberals may in two or three years manipulate the electorate and chance of tories will be gone. At a meeting of the Irish parliamentary party to day, Mr. E. Dwyer Gay presiding, it was unanimously agreed to vote against Mr. Gladstone's cloture resolution, when Sir Stafford Northcote makes his motion for its rejection.

THE INDIANS.

The Utes Threatening to Go on the War Path-Fligh

DURANGO, COL., November 6.-Among the Ute Indians the young bucks are threatening to go on the war path and scalp every male settler living on the Doloras. Citizens are greatly alarmed and say that unless the govrnment takes the matter in hand that bl shed will certainly ensue. Captain Flagte states that on Monday last at Baurrs, on the Monces, where the Indians congregated, a white man became so enraged at the threats of the Indians that he pulled Morriana, an Indian chief, from his horse, dragged him by the head and beat him, and had it not been for interference by bystanders, Morria would have been killed. Captain Flagler so says Bill Williams, a ranchman on the Do loras has been notified by friendly Indians that he had better leave his ranche as the young bucks are on the war-path. Williams earried the news to all the settlers and they left their ranches and made camp together at Johnston Store.

THE CONSTITUTION'S ENTERPRISE

the Ground Will be Covered-Riding for Dear Life-Excitement in the Districts-From

The announcement that THE CONSTITUTIO had made arrangements for reporting the vote of the 7th and 9th districts, in full by precincts on the night of the election, was received with surprise and enthusiasm and

The best friends of THE CONSTITUTION be lieve that it has undertaken an impossible feat. We cannot, ourselves, guarantee that we will make the work perfect. But in order that the public may know how thoroughly we have made our arrangements, give the details of our plan below.

REPORTING 896 PRECINTS.

How the Work is Laid Out and Who Will do It. To collect the returns of the 396 precincts of the 7th and 9th districts, mountainous and inaccessible as they are, requires the right calcutation the hardest riding, of every man, horse, engine and wire, engaged in the work. The failure of one element, or of one individual would destroy the whole plan. Follow ing are the arrangements made for the work:

A special engine and car on the Northeastern road will leave Rabun Gap junction to night in the service of THE CONSTITUTION, with Mr. Johnson as conductor and Mr. Henderson as engineer. This train will go first to Turnersville, where it will await Mr. T. N. McCor nell, with the returns of Rabun county, Mr. Mc Connell has employed a special courier for each pre cinct in Rabun county, who will galop in as the polls are closed and give him the returns for consoldation. He will then leave on horseback for Tur. ersville, 18 miles distant, and give the reurns to the engineer. As he has two relays of orses, he can make this by 10 o'clock at night. At Clarksville, Mr John Jones has charge off the Habersham returns. He has 9 couriers employed for the county precincts. He will have the county rote consolidated by 9 o'clock. Besides the Hab ersham returns the special train will wait at Clarkesville for the couriers from White, Union and Towns. Mr Joe Carter is in Cleveland, the county seat of White, and has eight men employed or the collection of White's returns. After gening these in he will ride to Clarkesville a distance of wenty-two miles and with three relays will reach here by midnight. Mr Will Haralson, is at Blairs rille, in Union county. He has twelve men em ployed to collect the Union county returns, which hope to have consolidated in Blairsville by seven o'clock. He will then start on his RIDE OF FORTY-FOUR MILES to Clarksville. He has seven relays of good horse on his route, and hopes to make the forty-four miles in seven hours, notwithstanding the mountainous way, the bad roads, and the dark night This will bring him to Clarksville by two o'clock At Nacoochee, which is on his route, he will meet Mr. John Harralson who will have collected the re turns of Towns county, and ridden twenty-three miles to meet his brother.

The special train, therefore, when it leaves Clarksville, which it ought to be able to do at half past two o'clock, will have with it the full returns rom five counties, the collection of which will have engaged

One of the most dangerous pieces of work is th ride from Morganton to Jasper. This is forty-one miles and over perhaps the worst road in the world, and at this writing the ride will probably be night. Mr P. J. Moran is in charge at Morganton and has six relays of horses that will be ready saddled and waiting at his various stations as he come for them. "And the news from Morganton will come in on time." In Gilmer county the news will be collected under Mr. Moran's arrangements, and forwarded twenty miles after the count is made by ourier to Jasper. In Pickens the urns will be collected from each precinct At Jasper, there is a telephone wire that conne hat town and Canton with the telegraph at Marietta. General Phillips attests that this telepho will not work except when it wants to. To avoid any delay, we have had a telegraph instrument at ached to the wire and the operator stationed at Canton. Mr. W. S. Grady, who is at Jasper, has a special engine under his orders, and if the tele hone will not work, will steam down to Canton where he can reach the telegraph. Mr. Henry Braswell and Mr. Smith have charge of Paulding and will have men at every precine and telegraph the news over the East Tenness and Virginia railroad wire as they come in. A special telegraph station, through the courtes of I. Y. Sage, superintendent of the Air Line, is es tablished at Bremen, and the operator located in oox car, will await the returns from Buchanan. M: S. T. Towns is at Buchanan and has charge of the corps of couriers in that county. It has heretofor been a week before the full vote of Haralson were in, but as Mr. Towns has only thirteen miles to ride to reach his improvised telegraph station, we will be pretty sure to know to-night exactly what it has

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS

The house was called to order at 10 o'clock. Mr. Rountree, of Brooks, gave notice of a motion to reconsider the action of the house pon his resolution to refer to the judiciary on the resolution to refer to the judiciary on the report of the special committee of the special committee of the Northeastern circuit.

Mr. Rountree favored the submission of this part of the report the judiciary committee. He thought the submission to the present incument the submission of the present incuments the submission of the present incuments. ratit was but justice to the present incumbents to have the tenure of office in the Northeastern circuit investigated. Mr. Reese, of Wilkes, chairman of the committee, opposed the motion. The house had acted upon this matter; the gentleman himself had not contended that the action of the committee was wrong. that the action of the committee was wrong. He moved to table the motion to reconsider. Upon this motion the ayes were 62 and the noes 74; so the motion to table was lost. Mr. Hulsey, of Fulton, said he had concurred in the report of the committee; he believed now the report of the committee was right; but, as which was of the highest importance, to the judiciary committee, so that as much light as possible might be thrown upon this subject. and that it might be investigated with all the are that the gravity of the question de-manded. TALLAPOOSA, November 4.- Many of your readers no doubt would like to hear how our town and people are moving along since the iron horse has reached our place. New life has sprung into our place, our citizens are buoyant and hopeful with the idea that we will soon have a thriving city, and I must say when the splendid farming country around here is considered, the beautiful locality of the place, its distance from any other important place, its healthfulness, etc., are fully considered it would seem that the buoyant hopes of our citizens (that Tallapoosa will soon be a city) rest on a very solid foundation. The locality is certainly one of the prettiest and most suitable for a city anywhere on the Georgia Pacific from Atlanta to Birningham, and I am sure that many of your business men and merchanics who are crowded and ground merchanics who are crowded and ground down by competition would find rest and profit by coming to our town and helping to build it up. Already we have a good school, music school, five or six stores, two steam cotton gins, wood shops, black-smith shops, etc. There are fine openings for almost every calling. We need sadly a local paper, one or two good hotels, livery stables, lawyers, etc. When the depot was first located some of our citizens thought it would have been desirable to have it a little nearer, but since its construction everybody is well but since its construction everybody is well pleased with its location, and do not want it changed. Our merchants are very busy. A great deal of cotton from the rich valleys of the Big Tallapoosa, Cane, Walker, Muscadine, Beach and Terrapin creeks is being brought bere. The farmers have all made an abundance of corn, wheat oats and meat and appear to be prosperous and contented. We all await anxiously for the arrival of The Consti-TUTION each week, that grand old paper which has done so much for the con-struction of our new road and for the general development of Georgia and the south. There is to be a big barbecue and sale of lots which, ve learn, is to come off this month.

Decatur, November 4.—Laura Barnett, a young colored girl, who lived with her mother, Hortense Barnett, in the kitchen of Dr W. W. Durham, gave birth to a child Thursday night before 10 o'clock, and it was carried to the orchard in the rear of the kitchen and left there until Friday morning about 6 o'clock, when Hortesne Barnett want to the orchard and got it and car.

Barnett went to the orchard and got it and carried it to her house and put it in a closet or pantry until near 8 o'clock, when it was brought out at the request of a colored wo-man who had called there, and upon investi-gation it was discovered that a string was tied round its neck so tight that it was with great difficulty that it was cut loose, and when the string was cut the child breathed a few times and died. Those who saw the child say it was a large, healthy looking child and almost white, while its mother is nearly black. Hor tense has been put in jail charged with mur der, and the girl is under arrest, and will be put in jail as soon as she is well enough to be moved, in the meantime she will be guarded. EASTMAN.

EASTMAN, November 4.—The origin of the difficulty last evening, resulting in the cutting of Mr. I unter, principal of the Eastman academy, by Fleming Latimer, a sixteen-year-old student in the school, is reported to be as follows: A match was dropped on the floor, and some one stepped on it, making a noise that disturbed the scholars. This sort of sport, it seems, has been going on for several days. Mr. Hunter could not find out who did the mischief. A little sister of Fleming Latimer said she thought he did it, as he carried matches in his pocket to light his cigars. Mr. Hunter reproved Fleming for his behavior.
The boy gave his teacher some impudence, and, it is said by some of the scholars, cursed him. Mr. Hunter took hold of him, as if to punish him, when he drew his knife, and striking at Mr. Hunter, cut a painful gash across his arm just below the elbow, and then

Oh, My Back!

That's a common expression and has a world of meaning. How much suffering is summed up in it.

The singular thing about it is, that pain in the back is occasioned by so many things. May be caused by kidney disease, liver complaint, consumption, cold, rheumatism, dyspepsia, overwork, nervous debility, &c.

Whatever the cause, don't neglect it. Something is wrong and needs prompt attention. No medicine has yet been discovered that will so quickly and surely cure such diseases as Brown's Iron Bitters, and it does this by commencing at the foundation, and making the blood pure and rich.

> Logansport, Ind. Dec. 1, 1880.
> For a long time I have been a sufferer from stomach and kidney disease. My appetite was very poor and the very small amount I did eat disagreed with me. I was annoyed very much from mon-retention of urine. I tried many remedies with no success, until I used Brown's Iron Bitters. Since I used that my stomach does not bother me any kidney trouble is no more, and my kidney trouble is no more, and my general health is such, that I feel like a new man. After the use of Brown's Iron Bitters for one month, I have gained twenty pounds in weight.

VIENNA is in a fair way to realize soon her wish for an elevated railway. The government has already decided, it is said on trustworthy evidence to grant the necessary concessions to an English company, so that it only remains for the local au-thorities to agree upon certain details in the con-struction. Some 150,000 tons of iron will be needed for the work, and Austrian furnaces will supply it all, a contract for the most of ithaving already been concluded.

EVERY considerable village could muster a large audience for an occasional dramatic enter tainment, provided it was a good one; but the tanment, provided it was a good one; but the trouble has been that such places have no buildings of suitable size and facilities. A manager now proposes to make a tour with a portable theater, including a stage, first rate machinery and an able company. The structure will be transported on and partly formed by eight railroad cars, and can be set up in half a day. It will have a gallery heating apparatus, and a seating capacity of 1,500. By means of a temporary track a site can be reached half a mile away from the railroad.

I am rid of the terrible monster.

I am rid of the terrible monster.

Being a drug clerk, I have seen so many hundreds of men dosed with calomel, iodide of mercury and iodide of potash, until they were made complete wreeks, that I shudder to think of the misery which has been brought on the human family by the use of mercurials for blood disease. It is a crying shame that physicians will not acknowledge the mert of your GRAND Blood Medicine. Use my name as you wish. I refer you to my present employers, or to Messrs. Colling Bros, St Louis.

PITTS'S FOR INF

THE CONSTITUTION.

ATLANTA, GA., NOVEMBER 7, 1882.

THE signal service bureau report indicates the South Atlantic states to-day, fair eather, winds mostly northeast, stationary or higher temperature and pressure.

WE print a letter from Dr. Felton this morning which was not received until yesterday. A letter from Dr. Baser will also be found in our columns.

PRESSURE on our space prevents a full report of council's meeting. The most important business was the granting right-of-way to the Metropolitan street railway the South Side railway; and the reconsideration of the resolution to abolish the street and police com missions, a majority of the board now being in favor of their retention.

HAMMOND OR BUCK-WHICH?

To-day the voters of the 5th district elect : congressman. It rests with the readers of this article very largely to say who that congress man will be. If each man who favors the election of Hammond will accept this re minder of his duty in good faith and give two or three hours earnest work to Colonel Hammond's cause, his election is assured overwhelmingly.

No intelligent man can doubt his duty in the premises. Colonel Hammond has given us excellent service, is a man of high ability, perfect integrity, and already has a commanding influence in con gress. As efficient as he has been in the past, it is but an earnest of what he will be in the future. The people of no district in the county have a safer, more capable or patriot ic representative than Colonel Hammond. His opponent cannot stand a moment's comparison with him. There is simply no reason, remote or contingent why Mr. Buck should be allowed to supplant Colonel Hammond. Even intelligent republicans must admit this much

Then let every man who feels any interest in the affairs of his district, give a few hours work to Colonel Hammond to-day. There is no tax-payer in the district who hasn't as much interest in this election as Mr. Ham mond has himself. Go out and vote. Not do this, but see that every about you is urged to vote and has a chance to do so. Let the people everywhere to work and give our nominee such a ma jority that republicanism will be rebuked finally in the good old fifth. Come out and vote, and spend at least one hour in getting others to vote. I will be an hour well spent

A WORD TO DEMOCRATS.

We do not believe it is necessary to urge any democrat in Atlanta, or in the fifth dis trict, to go to the polls to-day and do his duty; we do not believe it is necessary to urge any democrat in the fifth district to vote for on. N. J. Hammond and Hon. Thomas Hardeman for congress: but there are rumors given to the wind here and there-reports circulated hither and von-that no democrat and no democratic journal can afford to ignore. There is a large democratic majority in the fifth district, but in spite of this fact the republican candidate and his friends profess to be exultant over the results of the still-hunt inaugurated some weeks ago, and some of them even go so far as to declare that Buck will be elected. It is understood that money has been rather freely used, and there are a few republicans who do not hesitate to declare that even if Candidate Buck fails of an election at the polls his vote will be large enough to warrant a republican house of representatives in giving him the seat.

We need not say that democratic apathy is a prominent factor in the calculations of the republicans, but it is not the only factor. A well-known republican recently declared in the presence of the writer of this that many democrats in Atlanta and other portions of the district might be depended upon to vote for Candidate Buck as against Congressman Hammond. We take the liberty of doubting this. There is no self-respecting democrat, no democrat whose standing or influence is worth anything, who will give the preference to the republican candidate. Candidate Buck presents every policy, every project, that for fifteen years has been obnoxious to the people of the south, and there is absolutely nothing in his own record or in his individual environment to recommend to the support of any citizen of the state. Colonel Hammond, on the contrary, represents all that is best, all that is hopeful, in the south. He is a man of culture, a man of ideas, He has taken a stand in the house representatives second to of no man who has ever been sent from Georgia. He is earnest, zealous, progressive, and patriotic. Candidate Back, on the other hand, as his record shows, is a man of no individuality, the blind tool of a corrupt faction, the slave of small prejudices. Politics apart, there i no comparison between the two men.

Therefore, while the claim of the republi cans that between democratic apathy and democratic support they hope to put their man in is absurd, it is likewise significant. If any democrat has the slighest though remaining away from the polls et him cast it aside as unworthy and unnatural. he results of to-day's work will show that a eat democratic revival is sweeping over the untry-a revival that threatens to send the ublican party to the rear for many years to ne. It is a revival in which the humblest may have the honor of participate fruits of which he will have the he outlook is hopeful all very democrat in Atlan take place in 293 congressional districts, in- lican becomes a democrat he must ne cluding the districts that consist of entire states. Governors are to be elected in fifteen states-in California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Kansas, Massachusetts, Michigan, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New York, Pennsylvania. South Carolina, Tennessee and Texas. Legislatures are to be elected in twenty-two states, and constitutional propositions voted upon in seven states. Every territory, and every state except Maine, Vermont, West Virginia, Ohio and Oregon will be the scene of the sublimest spectacle that is known to human government. Of the legislatures, twenty-two in number fourteen will elect United States senators, namely, those of Colorado, Delaware, Illinois, Kansas, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee and Texas. The results in Colorado, Illinois and New Hampshire are considered in doubt by the democrats, and the republicans make similar elaims in Delaware and New Jersey. The elections of to-day may make Mahone a ciand restore the centrol of the senate to the democrats.

Thirty-two members of congress have been chosen, or just the number that the new house will contain above the present body. and the thirty-two elected are evenly divided between the two parties. They belong in Maine, Ohio, Oregon, Vermont and West Virgima, These five states sent to the present congress only eight democrats; in the next they will be represented by sixteen democrats This is a handsome gain: but still the dem crats must elect one-half of the 293 members to be chosen to-day to secure the control of the next house. Handsome democratic gains are expected in New York, Pennsylvania, Indiana. Missouri and Texas. The democrats should gain enough in these five states to give them the house by at least thirty majority, This is the outlook now: what it will be to morrow morning must be left to the tamed lightning and the tired tingers of belated

THE SEVENTH AND NINTH DISTRICTS. No piece of journalistic work ever attempt in this section has excited more interest than THE CONSTITUTION'S plan for reporting the full vote of every precinct in the two hotly contested districts, and we give in another column the details of how we propose to accomplish it.

As to whether we can make the report ful or not we cannot say. As we write these lines there are heavy clouds looks as and heavy rains were inevitable. Two of our couriers have over forty miles to ride after they have collected the returns from twelve precincts each and the counting has been finished. Six others have over twenty miles to ride. The roads they are to traverse are notoriously bad and over mountains and ravines. The moon is not due until 3 o'clock, and if the starlight is blotted out and a blinding rain added to the darkness, it will certainly take heroic work, and be almost a miracle if these eight men, speeding through the night and doing a big day's journey in a few hours, should each reach his destination A heavy rain to-day would make a dozen creeks and rivers in north Georgia impassible midnight, and the mountain roads so slippery that a horse can hardly climb them. Behind these riders are over two hundred couriers sent to special precincts, many of whom have to ride over thirty miles, counting both ways. The failure of any one of these couriers to make his trip in time would throw the others out and make the work imperfect. A deadened telethe wrong road in the dark-any one of ten thousand accidents, a hundred of which may happen stand between us and a perfect report.

But we are not "hedging" in our enterorise. We firmly believe, rain or shine, starlight or darkness, we shall have the news from every precinct in to-morrow's paper. Our men are beyond the reach of the wire. We can get them no word of advice, or appeal. But we rely on their energy and intelligence. Every one of them is enthusiastic and determined, and each man feels that the success of the whole scheme depends on his own work. They all know that we have backed them up at every possible point, sparing neither pains nor expense to lighten their work or assure their success and ours. No man has to ride one foot further than was absolutely necessary, nor to do with fewer horses and men than he wanted. The telegraph, telephone and rail, has been called on or all it can do to aid them. We have spent over $1,000 to get the news of these two districts, and if we don't get it, our readers may feel sure that several disabled men and horses are scattered about on the mountain roads of north Georgia, and that Wednesday's daybreak will find them hobbling on to wards the telegraph stations.

REAPPOINTMENT OF MAJOR WARREN. Governor Stephens yesterday requested Major J. W. Warren to fill out his commision as secretary of the executive depart ment. The reappointment of Major Warren to the responsible position which he fills with so much credit to himself and the state, will give the liveliest satisfaction in all quarters. Through three democratic administrations Major Warren has been the executive secretary, and he has performed the duties of his office with a zeal and an efficiency that ought to entitle him hereafter to more substantial reward at the hands of the democratic party. He is a hard worker, cautious and pains-taking, and never for an instant forgets the best interests of the state. His reappointment is an evidence that Governor Stephens proposes to surround himself with the best and most experienced men.

Howard Carroll has inaugurated a new reform his district. He has caused 10,000 lithographed ortraits of himself to be sown broadcast am nstituents. This, if anything, is calculated to insure democratic success. The trouble is that Mas-ter Carroll's hair is too short. Tammany, it will be emembered, is down with the same disease

THE republican still-hunt in the fifth congresional district has been carried on persistently and agerly. Buck has had money to back him, and his henchmen are now claiming that he will beat the democratic nominee. Every democrat in the district should do his duty by voting and working for Nat Hammond.

ossip About the 7th and 9th-The Independents and

It is estimated that fully $100,000 in cash has been wagered on the result in the 7th and 9th districts. In at least three cases bets of $500 to the side have made been on the 9th. In this city probably fifty bets of $100 to the side have been made, one bet of $250 each, and innumerable wagers of from $10 to $100, Pools have been sold nightly for a week past in Atlanta, and in Gainesville, Athens and elsewhere the betting has been general and spirited. The 7th has not had its share of this sort of thing it being necessary usually to give odds on Clements or bet on majorities to get the Felton men to put up money. Still the feeling has run very high and there is scarcely a vil'age in which there ha several cash bets made by the partisans of the two leaders. The interest in the result of the race is something phenomenal. The people of the districts were never so stirred up, and Georgia generally have never looked with such anxiety fo

"Yes, but there were 1,000 votes in Bartow cast and 700 in Floyd. There was great anathy and a big reserve vote. Who does this reserve belong to? Naturally to Felton, because it was his friends who were deceived by the 'still-hunt' of Clements, and it was in his big counties that the great loss was noticed. I believe that Clements will be elected, but not by as large a vote as before.

"IF YOU WERE TO BE HUNG." A Constitution reporterter was standing on the Broad street bridge yesterday with two of the best posted men in the ninth district.

In another column will be found the annual respectus of THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION, and we rust it will not be overlooked by any of our readers. The facts therein stated are too well and widely known to be discussed here, even if the paper itself did not amply prove the assertion made by its publishers. In addition to the general attractions, we have only to refer to the following points of merit to convince our readers of the sterling worth and newsiness of this excellent journal:

1. The improved classification of news, both local and general. Second. The labor and attention given to the development of our state resources and advancement of all local enterprises. Third. The fullness and brightness of its correspondence. Fourth. Under the new fast mail schedules it will reach every railroad town in Georgia on the day it is printed. Fifth. Being at the capital, it will at all times give full and complete reports of departmental, legislative and judicial news. Of course, the above are only a few of the many advantages claimed, but they are unficient to give it the distinction of being one of the most enterprising and progressive dailies in the so justly proud of it. paper itself did not amply prove the assertion made the gentlemen who would address the meeting. In a few pleasant and pertimeeting. In a few nent remarke s, he introduced Colone L. J. Glenn. 'Tis unnecessary to say anything of the oratory of Colonel Glenn; from hood he has been a firm, consistent democrat, and whenever called upon, an interesting, earnest and eloquent speaker. The argument of his speech was that the two great questions dividing the demo cratic and republican parties—the one national, the other local—the republicans contending for centralization, and the democrats opposing. The republicans for placing the government in the hands of the ignorant—the democrats wishing to have the government controlled by the intelligent and virtuous péople. He paid a high compliment to Colonel Hammond, reviewed his private life, his course in congress, and asked why he should not be re-elected, and why should southern people supersede him with Colonel Buck? He reviewed Buck's advent to Georgia, his ten years service in his clerkship here—drew a comparison between the two. The di trict had tried one republican in congress, and his work had been to have a colored man appointed to West Point. One republican had satisfied our pebple. cratic and republican parties-the one national sfied our pebple.

Colonel Glenn's speech was a strong one. He reriewed Colonel Hammond's congressional recordnormal his acts and votes, answered any and every indorsed his acts and votes, answered any and every objection raised as to his re-election, and urged upon voters the importance of going to the polls to-day. It should be said that Colonel Glenn was exceedingly happy in his remarks to the ladies.

The next speaker was Colonel Reuben Arnold. After some prefatory remarks, the colonel said he could not see how any man could hesitate as to who to vote for. The people of Fulton county should vote for some one to represent them. Since the war the democratic banner had been carried by the democracy of Fulton. What claims had Colonel Fuck on our people? He exploded the idea that Atlanta had been built up by northern capital exclusively. Southern brains and southern capital had done it. What southern interest did Colonel Buck represent. When a member of congress from Alabama, he voted against the admission of Georgia under the reconstruction act. Is he the proper man to represent Georgia? Colonel Arnold did not see why Colonel Buck desired to give up a $7,000 office to go to congress and get $5,000, unless he wished to reconstruct Georgia again. Colonel Arnold made a good speech, very aptly interspersed with ancedotes, giving excellent reasons why Colonel Hammond should be re-elected.

a good speech, very aptly interspersed with anecdotes, giving excellent reasons why Colonel Hammond should be re-elected.
Colonel W. Hulsey then addressed the meeting in a sound rousing speech. He did not doube but that the fifth congressional district would do her duty, and certainly Fulton county would not be behind any in the district. He spoke in the highest terms of Colonel Hammond's services in congress, and urged that he should not only be re-elected, but more, complimented by a very large majority. He also spoke in the highest terms of Colonel Hardeman and urged upon every voter to go to the polls.

He paid a high compliment to Atlanta, and regretted to hear that republicanism would raise her head here. He paid aglowing tribute to the democratic party. True, he did not reside in this district, but he was a Georgian, and felt at home anywhere on her soil, and took pleasure of speaking of Colonel Ham-mond, indorsing him, and in urging upon voters their duty to re-elect him. Mr. Duligmon made a very perturent and heantiful speech

He warmed up all present, and elicit much and prolonged applance. Mr. Tutt has a ve apt and effective manner of introducing first-chancedotes. The various speakers dwelt not out upon the importance of voters turning out to cure the re-election of Colonel Hammond, but cure the re-election of Colonel Hammond, but he should be complimented by; an increased majority. As a member of congress he had proven himself to be a student of the philosophy of government in its broadest and most dignified aspect. Gave proof that he understands the origin, the history, the policy and the true end of the government under which he lives. Showed that he was a man of thought, one that disdained the tricks of small politicans, used no paltry acts for the aggrandisement of selfused no paltry acts for the aggrandisement of self and ever had an eye to the interest and advance nent of Georgia.

TO THE PUBLIC. The following appears in the Herald of th evening: "We have seen two kinds of tickets put out by Mr Buck; both are alike, but one of them is printed on tissue paper—a regular tissue ballot. Do they intend to vote two tickets at once?"

Mr Buck means no such thing. Neither he no his committee has had printed or circulated or authorized to be printed or circulated any "tissue bullots." No one but an enemy of mine and a scoundrel would do such a thing. If such tickets have been printed, they could only have been done by my enemies for the purpose of creating the impression that my friends are doing it.

Respectfully. A. E. Buck. A. E. BUCK.

Respectfully, We work We were shown yesterday two tissue ballots with D. Forsythe for congressman at large, and A. E Buck for congressman, printed on them. It is the intention to use these tickets so as to vote two or more at once. It requires watching, and close watching. We call the attention of the managers to it. The ticket came from Upson county.

The Seventh District. DR. BAKER'S LETTER.

EDITORS CONSTITUTION: It is reported this morn ing that Dr. Felton has sent to you for publication a reply to my communication published Saturday ast, and I do not know how bitter or unfair it may be, but I desire to say that I shall be ready to mee it promptly and refute any charge he may make, and to make good every charge I have made Of course I shall not have time before the election to do it, but if he maligns or misrepresents me or attacks my character I shall take occasion to attend to it after the election in such manner as the proprieties of the occasion, and the character of the assault may require. I simply desire in your issue of to-morrow morning to reiterate the statement heretofore made that the true issue before the people of the seventh district is the issue between the democratic and republican parties. There is no middle ground. When the representative of the seventh gets to Washington, there are but two parties, and he will have to vote either with the republicans or with the democratic range of the people that it can not axow its principles. I repeat the question: which party will Dr. Felton act with if he should be elected? Would he act with the democrats and vote for the democratic candidate for speaker? This is a vital issue. Much of our future destiny may turn upon it, as the two parties may have about equal strength in the house, and the vote of the seventh district in the house may turn the scale one way or the other. I do not know what the doctor has said in his card, but I do not hesitate to say in advance that he has not answered this question: and I again propound it to him on the very day of election. Which way will you vote if you should be elected? it promptly and refute any charge he may make election. Which way will you vote if you should be elected?" You complain of bosses in your speeches and yet you set yourself up to be the biggest boss in Georgia. You propose to boss the seventh and speak for it in washington, and act for it just as you please without giving the people even an intimation in advance of the election which line of policy you will take, or how you will vote The people have the right to govern themselves, through their representatives, and no one has the right to set himself up to be independent of the voters, and their representatives, and no one has the right to set himself up to be independent of the voters, and say that he will act for them as he please. The democrats of the seventh district will not submit to be bossed in this mannerr. They will, therefore, vote for Clements. His position is not equivocal. He is a true democrat. If elected, as he doubtless will be, he will vote for the democratic candidate for speaker, and vote with the democrats on every important issue.

I am reliably informed that Mr. Clarke Baker, of the firm of Baker & Hall, appeared in a justice's court in the town of Cartersville, and swore that his brother, Thomas H. Baker. kept false books, and he (Clarke) would not believe him on his oath.

The difficulty was serious enough to call for two pistol shots, so I understand, and when Dr. Baker makes an assertion hereafter, I respectfully refer you to his brother, who felt obliged to show up publicly Dr. Baker's professional character. I understand Mr. Robert Trippe, formerly of Cartersville, now of Atlanta, was one of the atto neys in the case. He is near enough to you to say whether this statement is correct, and to give you needful particulars.

this statement is correct, and to give you account particulars.

As regards his (Baker's) vote two years ago, his statement in to day's paper does not clear the matter in any way whatever. Mr. Wikle has given one certificate (as Mr. Satterfield informs me, and Sheriff Franklin is ready to give another, if Dr. Baker appears before the public again in denial. In myopinion, Dr. Baker will say but little more upon the subject, especially where he is best known. As to the Jeff Long matter, if it is disputed, I can furnish certificates that Dr. Baker received also a private subscription to assist in its payment.

to the Jeff Long matter, if it is disputed, I can furnish certificates that Dr. Baker received also a private subscription to assist in its payment.

How many whisky bills, my money paid for, that Dr. Baker drew from me to ostensibly "pay poor whites and colored" I am unable to say, but no man has ever yet presented me a whisky bill of my ordering. When such a bill is presented I shall expect my order to accompany it, and then the facts will be due to the public. I could not become responsible for such as Dr. Baker. The whisky bills, like the drafts alluded to, may have all found their way through superservicable parties similar to the doctor himself who needed money "to pay pay poor white and colored," and of whose whereabouts I ke we literally nothing then or now. I have told how I would vote, (on every stump in this district) on the organization of the house of representatives if elected to that body. I shall do as Mr. Stephens did, hold myself "as independent of one political orguization as another" and vote for the bestjman, and the one who is my judgement would do most for the material, intellectual and moral prosperity of Georgia. Respectfully, WM. H. FELTON.

The Ninth District.

pecial to the Constitution. ATHENS, November 6.-Athens is boiling ov with political excitement. All day long the streets have been crowded and nothing has been talked out to-morrow's contest. Over four thousand dolars were bet on the race in the ninth, mostly on ounties. The Candler men were unable to get ven bets on the grand result. They gave one fifty we hundred, and in some cases five hundred materially we hundred, and in some cases five hundred materially. They are the most confident set I ever saw and back their enthusiasm with statements of reliable reports from the district. To-night the Candle lub had a grand rally, with addresses by Pope Barrow and others. Both sides will be at the polloy daybreak, and a determined contest will ensue F. H. RICHARDSON.

It is im ossible to give you a conception of the situation Every store in the city will be closed to-morrow the factories will be shut down, and all busines suspended. There is tremendous enthusiasm for Candler, and the Speer men are defiant and aggreive. Trouble is apprehended at the polls to-mo ow, and the only hope for peace is that both side see the danger, and may be prudent. It is believed that Speer cannot possibly get over 275 majority. A general order has been issued calling the workers for each side to the polls at 6 o'clock. Hon. Calvin George left for Madison last night to be present at the election to-day. He said: You may be sure that Speer's majority in Morcan will not be over two hundred. Indeed I am hopeful that Candler will carry the county. The talk about Speer getting 350 majority is out of he mark. My advices from there to-day are very encouraging,"

Colonel Candler's own estimate of the result made yesterday is that he will be elected by 325 majority.
The Speer men are either very confident or are ndulging in a big game of bluff. They claim 3,000 as the lowest figure for Speer. They are not betting however.

Some idea of the interests in the Candler campaign in Gwinnett may be had from the fact that a committee was appointed to canvass the county forwagons and buggies with which to foring aged, or infirm, or sick Candler voters to the poils. In a day's canvass over 200 vehicles were offered.

MR, J. C. C. BLACK'S LETTER Augusta Chronicle. We are apprehensive that Hon. J. C. C. Black he een led into a wrong position by over-zealous ald not specially grieve if riends or others who wo counts, Mr. Black however worthy of the honor, has no chance whatever of being elected to the senaorship, although he evokes the ideal one not seek ing the preferment and inferentially applies it to himself. If we were dwellers in Arcadia instead o a very material and sinful word, nothing could be ore beautiful in theory or admirable in practic than the proposition enunciated by Mr. Black as to the office seeking the man and not the man the office. We do not find this how ever, carried out absolutely in Georgia or anywher else. The greatest and purest and best of Geor gians, some of whom at least were worthy of M Black's reverence, have not deemed it, in any sense disgraceful to have made the mightiest persona efforts to advance their laudable ambition. Not to recall the giants of the past, but to give an example most opportune, the renowned Ben Hill himself whose place is about to be filled as best we may did not hesitate to seek the office and seek it to with all the splendid powers that God had given him it is a matter of record that people, who so mourn him now, were not so very active in thrusting office upon him, when he did not ask for it. Even Mr. Black himself recently sought, in an honorable way, to become a representative of this district, and many of his friends sincerely regret and mourn without comfort that he did not match his successful competitor in personal energy and endeavor. without comfort that he did not match his successful competitor in personal energy and endeavor. If it is necessary now to reward with the senatorship some gentleman who does not seek it, in the ordinary acceptation of that term, why was not the same rule good with regard to the candidacy for the lower House of congress? For the unexpired term of Mr. Stephens, a gentleman who endeavored to approach Mr. Black's model of not seeking the office was not specially helped by Mr. Black in carrying out the ideality so strenuously insisted upon at this time, and for the particular purpose of defeating Governor Colquitt. There is a remarkable want of exact consistency in these things, and we fear that Mr. Black may find argument, that the distinguished gentlemen are presenting their claims at Atlanta for the argument, that the claims at Atlanta for the sena-are presenting their claims at Atlanta for the sena-torship are entering upon and engaged in "an un-dignified and shameful scramble" for a high sta-tion. This will hardly make Mr Black's cause pre-potent with those who are supposed to be, in the jargon of the day, "pooling their issues" with him We have not heard that Governor Colquitt him We have not heard that Governor Colquitt has done anything "undignified or shameful" in this canvass. The same may be said, with truth, of General Lawton, Hon Clifford Anderson, Chief Justice Jackson or any other person mentioned favorably in this connection. By some subtle raticcharion, Mr. Black, while seeking to be modest in his letter, may be thought by some who do not know him to push his supereminent claims in contrast with those who are supposed to be seeking the senatorial office. The triends of who do not know him to push his supereminent claims in contrast with those who are supposed to be seeking the senatorial office. The friends of Colquitt, Jackson, Lawton or Anderson may so, however mistakenly, read between the lines of Mr. Black's letter. They might say that having drawn a disparaging picture of other men, he has called attention to the best man, who is, if necessary, "willing to be sacrificed for what he believes to be right." Now, we think this would nave come with better grace from Mr. Brack sometime back, when the representative canvas was it in proceedings. with better grace from Mr. Brack sometime back, when the representative canvas was in progress. Nobody thinks for an instant that he violated any of the loftiest ethics when he sought to be nominated for the forty-eighth congress, or made the nomination for the unexpired term of Mr. Stephens perfectly safe for the gentlemen who left no stone unturned to secure both terms. If a man is not to seek office but office to seek him, then neither Mr. Reese nor Mr. Black has come up to the full statue of political perfection, and it lies not in the mouth of either to condemn in others what they have practiced in common. Mr. Reese is the nominee to-day, because he did seek preferment, and Mr. Black is not the nominee because he did not seek the office with an activity equal to that of his competitor. That is altivity equal to that of his competitor. That is altivity equal to that of his competitor.

thirty equal to that of his competitor. That is an there is in it, and everybody knows it.

We repeat that it is mere quixotism to expect that at this time of the world, office is going to be thrust on any man, especially the office of senator. We repeat that Mr. Black should not insist now upon a rule that he did not, a little while back, observe. rule that he did not, a little while back, observe. We repeat that it is to us a matter of regret that so talented, eloquent and high minded a gentleman, in the attempt to defeat Governor Colquitt, should lend himself to a sacriface that cannot hurt his adversary, but may seriously injure himself.

THE TROUBADOURS LAST NIGHT. "Green Room Fun" was presented by the Sals-bury Troubadours, to a good sized audience at De-Give's opera house last night. The performance was as sparkling and taking as at a former enter tainment several weeks since. Salsbury added to his reputation as a comedian. His quaint humor, grotesque make up, and portrayel of the old chief War Cloud, convulsed his hearers; his every effort brought down the house. And what can be said of Miss Nellie McHenry? can be said of Miss Nellie McHenry? Whether dancing, singing, laughing or crying, she is the embodiment of irrepressible joility. She is the personification of vivacity, yet a thorouh artist, and a woman of marked attractiveness. Mismarie Hunter charmed the audience, and Mr John Webster was a success. The introduction of an Episcopal clergyman was an objectionable feature in the play, and frankly some of the situations and portions of the dialogues verged upon that which was too broad. "Green Room Fun" is highly amusing, and can be greatly enjoyed clipped of its objectionale features.

THE STATE UNIVERSITY TRUSTEES. The meeting of the board of trustees will take ace on Wednesday at 3 o'clock, instead of 11 duty of the board to elect two trustees to fill the vacancies caused by the death of Hon. B H Hill, and Colonel W L Mitchell, they will also have to elect a secretary and treasurer, vice Colonel W L Mitchell, and a professor, vice, Dr E W Speer, resigned. The meeting will be held in the breakfast oom of the Kimball house.

Colonel Buck admits that he has spent four thousand dollars in his campaign.

Captain Milledge for Trustee.

On Wednesday next the trustees of the university will meet in this city. Several important matters will be before them for action, among others the election of two trustees to fill the places of Colonel W. L. Mitchell and Hon. B. H. Hill. Among onel W. L. Mitchell and Hon. B. H. Hill. Among the names mentioned most prominently for one of the vacancies is that of Captain John Miledge. His father donated the land on which the university is located, and was one of its earliest benefactors; and it would be peculiarly appropriate that so worthy a son should be elected to a position in the board of trustees. A professor of belles letters is also to be elected.

The Temperance Meeting.

The Temperance Meeting.

The temperance meeting at Good Templars hall last night, drew an unusually large audience, including many legislators.

The installation cremonies were conducted in a very impressive manner by D G W C T Bollman. The recitations by the little Misses Trions and Master Niles were received with rounds of applause. Colonel Peek as speaker of the evening invited the attention of every one in the audience, and his address created quite a favorable impression and won many converts to the temperance cause. He was made the recipient of a most beautiful bouquet by the ladies of the lodge.

Hon. Mr. Wood, of Walker, gave a glowing discription of what prohibition had done for Walker county. By request, Mr. Brewer, of Adairsville, recited a poem that touched the hearts of all that was present. The music of the Giec Club was well rendered. All in all this was one of the most successful temperance meetings that has been held in Atlanta in a long time. Hon. Mr. Bishop has consented to deliver the address at the next meeting, which will take place on Thursday night, the 23d instant.

THE MOUNTAIN COLT.

Hark! that sound like distant thunder. Threatening its destructive bolt: What's its meaning? people wonder, Ah! it is that "mountain colt."

Hear him neighing, see him prancing, Fearless as old Marshall S From tall peaks to plains advancing

Racks the "rock-ribbed mountain colt." Long hath gloom o'er right's home brooded, Now fate's eggs begin to moult

Leda's swan-your fame is hooded. Here is hatched a "mountain colt."

Hark! the pibrech's notes are sounding, All the clans are in revolt;

Bartow's chief's stronghold surrounding-Leading them, our "mountain colt."

Ah, ye scoffers, and you rprompter! Scorn's boat's pilot's prov'd a dolt; The People's flood hath struck and swamp'd her, But roars pæans to "mountain colt."

In democracy's old wagon Let us ride, though oft she jolt; Pass her faults, her good parts brag on, For he pulls her-"mountain colt."

See him now, our cause redeeming; Ah, the parson's "lost his holt;" Freedom's sun's bright rays are beaming, Huzza! for our "mountain colt."

ARE: ATLANTA WATCHES THE BEST?

Because---The time keeping results which they have yielded, place them foremost in the market for accuracy, reliability and special adaptability for rough useage.

Because---They have features of improvement which cannot be found upon any other watch. Because---Being made at home, should an accident occur to any part, a duplicate of that part can be supplied at our factory and the watch put running again in 30 minutes.

Because they are indorsed by railroad men who have given them the severest tests.

Because it is a Southern production and every part of each watch is guaranteed by a responsible home establishment who have a reputation to sustain. Because THE PRICES ARE LOWER than other makes of watches of similar quality.

TO SQUARE ACCOUNTS.

An lows Man Slayer Accompanies a Sheriff to the Place of His Misdeeds.

Among the passengers who reached Atlanta yesterday from the south were an Iowa sheriff and an Iowa man-slayer, the latter of whom is going back to be tried for the ctime of which he stands charged.

The sheriff, who is a small effeminate looking individual, gave his name as C. H. Howard and said that his home was in Platte city. Of his prisoner he said that his name was T. P. Lenkins and that he city. Of his prisoner he said that his name was T. P. Jenkins, and that he was wanted for killing a companion in a row in a disreputable house during the last Christmas holidays. From the sheriff's story it appears that Jenkins and a life long companion became involved in a finite long companion became involved in the ion became involved in a fight about a woman, during which Jenkins cut his adversary's throat with a small pocket-knife and then after seeing the enormity of his crime attempted to kill himself. Self or ins crime attempted to kill himself. Self murder, however, was not so easy, and apart from a stab in his left breast inflicted with his own hand, Jenkins was uninjured when arrested. The next morning after the killing Jenkins' wound began to give rise to apprehensions of his death and he was removed from the cell to a grow in the moved from the cell to a room in the jail where he was closely guarded and where every attention was given him. At the end of a couple of weeks he was pronounced out of danger but before he was well enough to be confined in a cell, he made his secret and he heen at large until about his escape and has been at large until about two weeks ago, when he was captured in Louisiana near New Orleans. Jenkins is a large fine looking young

Jenkins is a large fine looking young man of about twenty-one years of age. His face was devoid of beard and his head was covered with a fine jet black curly suit of hair. His hands were soft and white, and looked ill at ease in the heavy handcuffs which bound them together. Concerning his trouble he talked freely, and quietly admitting the charge to be true, but attempting to exonerate himself by pleading drunkenness at the time the killing true, but attempting to exonerate himself by pleading drunkenness at the time the killing

He declined to tell how he escaped, but alks willingly of his meanderings through the south, and tells with a smile how he esche south, and tells with a smile how he escaped the police at various places. He says he was in Atlanta when the Logansport bank defaulter was arrested by Captain Bagby, and that he left on the next train for Florida, but stopped at Macon where he gave Chief Hurley a scientific dodge, who was, he thought, upon his track. Jenkins appears to be confident of an acquittal and says the only thing that will prevent an acquittal is his escape.

The sheriff and his prisoner both left by the Western and Atlantic passenger train for Iowa. During their sojourn in the city the prisoner was seen by Captain Bagly and two members of the police force, who recognized him as a "suspicious character" in Atlanta about five months ago.

"The man in the goat wagon" has lately disappeared from view and for several months his well known form and the odor of his goat has been absent from the shady side of the well known mendicant. The old "Billy" that formerly drew him about was a very large sized goat, and was also a very loudly perfumed goat. So loudly perfumed, in fact, that he was adjudged a nuisance, and the mendicant was ordered to give that a goat could be treated to. The mendithat a goat could be treated to. The mendicant was in trouble. He had neither soap nor water, and in his crippled condition he saw no way in which he could comply with the requirements of the city fathers. Finally a bright idea struck him and he acted on it. In a few days his goat came out painted sky had come the country believes "thorough." blue, or, as the country hotels say, "thorough ly renovated and repainted." But, alas! coating of whitewash will not strengthen coating of whitewash will not strengthen a fence, nor will a coat of blue paint keep a billy goat's natural odors from getting mixed up with the gentle zephyrs that linger around his patriarchal beard. The blue paint faded away and the goat turned a sort of dusty brown, and as age came to him, his strength of odor increased until whenever the wagon went along it left a strenk of odor as long almost and as well described for dor as long almost and as well described. until whenever the wagon went along it left a streak of odor as long almost and as well defined as a comet's tail. One morning the goat was found as stiff as a board and stark dead. An inquest was held by the neighbors, and it was decided that the goat had fallen a victim to some man's malice and poison. Another goat was given to the mendicant—a nice, clean billy, who did not have as much whiskers as his predecessor had owned. But soon he grew dusty and dark and odorous and in due course of season went the way of all the earth. A third goat was secured, but all the earth. A third goat was secured, but he, too, soon began to make his impress on the air. Forbearance ceased to be a virtue the air. Forbearance ceased to be a virtue and one day when the mendicant was at home the city authorities quarintined against him. He was barred. A fierce looking policemen went to him and showed him the fire limits and told him that if ever he crossed that line again he would be sent up. For weeks the mendicant was compelled to remain in the shade of a sycamore tree at the corner of Houston and Valentine streets where he could not raise money enough to buy fodder for his billy goat. The authorities relented and there are now three days on which he is permitted to come up into the haunts of civilization. On Saturdays he is at lowed to take up his stand near the First Methodist church. On Mondays he is at the First Baptist and on Tuesdays he has a stand at the corner of Wheat s he has a stand at the corner of Wheat and Ivy. On other days he is restricted to his accustomed drives. PRYOR'S OINTMENT

IS A SPEEDY AND SURE CURE FOR Blind or Bleeding Piles, Hæmorrhoids, Sores, Ulcers, Tumors, Itching of the Parts Fistulas and all Kindred Diseases; also of Burns, Corns, Felons, Fever Sores, Scald Head, Tetter, Sore
Niples, etc.

ANIANA GA. Aug. 25, 1877.

ATLANTA, GA., Aug. 25, 1877. After an experience of twenty-five years in selling this ointment, and during that time having closely watched its effects, and having that condense with the confidence of the confidence in its merist, I became fully satisfied of its value, and I have bought the exclusive right to make and sellit, and offer it to you as the best remedy in the world, especially for all forms of Piles.

READ THE TESTIMONIALS: READ THE TESTIMONIALS:
This is to certify that I have tried Pryor's Pile ontenent in a case of piles, and state that it gave more relief than anything I have ever tried. I further state that as a remedy for burns it is unparalleled. I also used it for a case of tetter in my feet, of twenty years' standing, and say that it is the first thing that I have ever tried that gave me more than momentary relief. I consider now that I am entirely relieved from that distressing disease.

Troup County, Ga.

Having been afflicted for ten years, at intervals, with that distressing malady, the piles, and after many ineffectual trials of the remedies in common use. I commenced a short time ago to use your Pile Ointment. I experienced immediate relief. From the relief experienced in my case, as well as from the reputation so rapidly acquired by your Ointment in this vicinity. I have no hestitation in expressing the opinion that it is the most efficient remedy for piles ever invented.

O. A. BULL. LaGrange, Ga.

This is to certify that I used Pryor's Cointment in a case of severe burn, and thatin a very few days it was entirely relieved of all inflammation, and healed rapidly. After the first application of the Cointment, the patient suffered no pain what sver. E. J. MORGAN, LaGrange, Ga.

By the advice of Mr. Wynn, I used your Pile Ointment on a servant girl who had been suffering for eight years with a most aggravated case of piles. She improved from the very first day's me of your Ointment, and before using the box she was entirely recovered.

G. W. FOSTER, Cusseta, Ala. This is to certify that I have used Pryor's Pile Ointment, and say that it is, in my opinion, the best remedy for piles ever presented to the public I say this from a positive application of the remedy en my own person.

To Promulgate the Truth.

To Promulgate the Trath.

The way to get a thing believed by the public at large is to first have a truth to announce without any doubt or suspicion as to its being the truth, and then to keep on telling by speech and pen, by type and figure, in every way repeating it constantly. Thus it was that when the Louisiana State Lottery was incorporated in 1763 at New Orleans, for charitable and educational purposes, there was a doubt that the managers would act as fairly as they announced, but the fact that Generals G T Beauregard of Louisiana, and Jubal A Early of Virginia, have the sole supervision of the drawings removes this suspicion, and it has been proven up to the 150th monthly drawing on November 14th, that millions have been distributed to parties applying to M A Dauphin, New Orleans, La, in sums ranging as high as $10,000, and so on down. Tickets cost $5, but fifths are sold at $1 each, and the certainty of the event is supplemented by the knowledge that some one will get $75,000, or fractional parts thereof. Who will it be?
